

Who Are We?

Ministers' wives give great amounts of their time and energy and of themselves working alongside their husbands in ministry. As they minister so faithfully to others, they also need encouragement and support in their own lives, and sometimes that can be difficult to find.

Woman's Missionary Union of North Carolina knows the importance of providing these things to ministers' wives across the state and for many years has coordinated support groups specifically for that purpose. These support groups offer opportunities for ministers' wives to affirm and be affirmed in their calling and responsibilities as they grow and serve where God has planted them. WMU NC also holds retreats for ministers' wives to foster fellowship and spiritual growth and renewal. Every minister's wife can benefit greatly from fellowship, sharing, support and growth provided through this ministry.

The NC Ministers' Wives Vermont Prayer Partnership

North Carolina ministers' wives have begun a prayer partnership with ministers' wives in the state of Vermont. This partnership is intended to encourage, strengthen and establish new friendships with the ministers' spouses in Vermont who are in like ministry with their husbands. It is becoming a two-way prayer chain as we get to know one another and pray for each others' specific needs.

New friendships are already beginning and we pray that other ministries may develop from this partnership as sisters in Christ.

If you would like to join in this new partnership or find out more about the ministers' spouses support ministry, contact Betsy McSwain, WMU NC Ministers' Spouses Support Coordinator, at 252.332.2923 or bmcswain@wmunc.org, contact the WMU NC office at 866.210.8602 or info@wmunc.org, or visit the web page about ministers' spouses support at www.wmunc.org.
