

Dear NC Baptist Churches,

As the Executive Director/Treasurer of WMU, I am thrilled that you would take time to fill out the Annual Church Profile. I look forward to getting the filled-in copies to learn more about your church. We especially want to know about your Woman's Missionary Union. We have 10 age-level organizations in which groups meet to learn, pray, give and do missions. Therefore, you may have our Preschool mission organization in your church, which is Mission Friends, for 3-5 years old. For example, you could have a four-year-old boy that is in WMU! So count all the ones involved in Mission Friends, Girls in Action, Royal Ambassadors, Children in Action, Acteens, Challengers, Youth on Mission, myMISSION, Adults on Mission and Women on Missions.

If your church does not have WMU, we would be very happy to help you start one. We have consultants that would come to your church for free to show samples of the curriculum and help you get started. WMU NC challenges Christian believers to understand and be radically involved in the Great Commission.

We want to help equip your church- here are a few ways that we could be of help to you. We have:

- over 250 Bible studies DVDs that we lend for free
- CD's for the visually impaired
- ways to help your church adopt a missionary
- ways you can be involved in Prison Ministry through volunteering at our Prison retreat, or donating to Red Boxes which goes to incarcerated women at Christmas.
- mission trips, just to name a few!

We will have a drawing of all the churches that participate in the ACP. We will be giving away a beautiful handmade frame from India made by women who were enslaved through human trafficking. They have found the Lord and sell these frames to make a living for their families. The frame is made from little broken pieces of glass they pick up on the streets and trash. They make something beautiful out of brokenness. This is what Christ does for us.

Please go to our website to learn more. WMU was first organized in 1888, but you will see we are still relevant and ready to help your church get more involved in missions. "For we are laborers together with God." 1 Corinthians 3:9
