

Make missions come alive through

Girls in Action

Girls in Action is a longstanding and vibrant missions outreach to help the girls in your local church learn about missions, pray for and support missionaries, and then actually do missions work themselves! For over 100 years, it's a proven way to help girls grow spiritually and make an impact in their community. To learn more about Girls in Action, visit wmu.com/ga

GA World: The stories and fun activities in GA World will open the world of missions for girls in grades 1 through 6. Involve your GAs in missions around the globe with each exciting story and feature.

- missionary and missionary kid profiles
- articles about cities and countries where missionaries serve
- games and activities
- vibrant, full-color pages
- corresponds to sessions in GA Leader

Four quarterly issues a year—one per girl

GA Leader: GA Leader serves as your essential resource for leading a vibrant Girls in Action organization. Each quarterly issue carries weekly missions lesson plans for girls in grades 1 through 6.

- four weekly sessions that correspond with GA World
- creative activities
- ministry ideas
- leadership articles and advice on teaching preteens and prereaders

Four quarterly issues a year—one per leader

GA Leader Kit: GA Leader Kit is the perfect supplement to enhance the GA experience. It includes games, banners and glossy, full-color pictures that correspond with the lessons in GA Leader and bring each missions focus to life.

Four quarterly issues a year—one per classroom

To order your Girls in Action materials, visit wmu.com/ga or call 1-800-968-7301.

To set up a free Girls in Action consultation, contact Heather Keller, Children's Ministry Consultant, at hkeller@wmu.org or (205) 991-4816.