

Carolina Women 2021 Conference Descriptions

How to pray for and care well for your overseas missionaries - Alicia Olmstead (10:00, 11:00) Room 103

Sometimes our prayers for missionaries seem like they are on repeat, "Lord keep them safe, and help them share the gospel". Does your church have a special missionary couple/family who they regularly pray and intercede for? When they come back for their stateside assignment, how can you care for them well and encourage them?

This session will give you tips and ideas to pray more specifically for your missionaries and how to care for them at home or abroad. If your church doesn't have a missionary they are connected with, come anyway and share your contact info, I know some missionaries who would love to connect with your church!

Here am I Lord....Send Who? - Alicia Olmstead (1:15) Room 103

Do you have young people and families in your church who the Lord is calling out to serve among the nations? Are you praying for that in your church? What will you do when He answers your prayers? This session is to help you know how to nurture, develop, and help children, students, adults, and families know how to count the cost and be ready to answer the call. As we share stories of God's calling, we want to be ready to challenge those in our care to answer the call to ministry.

Connecting People to Christ During a Crisis - Amy Boone (10:00, 1:15) Room 110
