

Help preschoolers know God's love for the world—

Mission Friends

How early can a child begin learning Christian missions concepts?

The preschool years.

From babies to kindergartners, Mission Friends provides the building blocks of faith and a basic awareness of God's love for all people. For Mission Friends leaders, you'll find resources designed to help you engage preschoolers of all ages in hands-on missions activities. Learn more about Mission Friends at wmu.com/preschool

Mission Friends Leader: In each issue of Mission Friends Leader, you'll find creative activities and mission stories to get your preschoolers involved in missions. Weekly activities are in the interest areas of music, art, blocks, nature, homemaking and more!

Four quarterly issues a year—one per leader

Mission Friends at Home: Through songs, games, activities and a note to parents, Mission Friends at Home will help you engage with families and continue the learning sessions at home. One subscription provides take-home leaflets for up to ten preschoolers and their parents each month. For Babies, Ones and Twos, a reproducible sheet is on the back inside cover.

Four quarterly issues a year

Mission Friends Resource Kit and Pictures:

Energize your Mission Friends classroom! Inside each issue, you'll find games, songs, posters, and more to enhance the learning activities found in Mission Friends Leader. You'll also receive vibrant photos of missionaries and their mission fields around the world, discussion questions, and Bible thoughts for preschoolers. This kit is a must-have aid to complement each learning experience in Mission Friends Leader.
