

To: Missions Leaders

From: Julie Keith, WMU NC Student, Collegiate & Young Women

Thank you for the work that you are doing to help Acteens and Students to learn how to be Christ followers and how to engage other students to hear the Gospel message. WMU has curriculum that can help you with this.

I am grateful that there are Christian's that also are online that do alot of research about teenagers and I wanted to share that information with you. Most of the things they send out in emails are free. There are three different ones that I read and I want to give you that information:

Growing Leaders, Tim Elmore on Leading the Next Generation,
timelmore@growingleaders.comviagmail.mcsv.net

His post on 7-18-2020 was Seven Reasons Why so Many Teens Are Involved in Protests.

His post on 7-23-2020 was Ask Don't Tell: What Could We Learn from Gen Z During a Pandemic.

Barna Group provides spiritual influencers with credible knowledge and clear thinking, enabling them to navigate a complex and changing culture.
Barna.com

3 Ways Mission Work is Shifting - The definition of success for a missionary has changed. Donations are losing their appeal. The job of the missionary is to be re-defined. From THE FUTURE OF MISSIONS - A Barna report produced in partnership with the International Mission Board

CPYU -CENTER FOR PARENT/YOUTH UNDERSTANDING

Helping parents,youth workers, educators, pastors and others understand and reach today's youth culture. MAY 2020 CPYU PARENT PAGE: Teens,

Sleep, and Pandemic Breakdown. Depression and Anxiety, Obesity, Heart Disease, Decreased neurologic function and Aggressive and inappropriate behavior.