

Royal Ambassadors is a trusted and solid missions and ministry outreach to help boys in the local church learn about missions, pray for and support missionaries, and then actually do missions work themselves! It's an incredible way to help boys grow closer to God and tell others about His great love. To learn more about Royal Ambassadors, visit wmu.com/ra

Create a brotherhood of mission-minded boys with Royal Ambassadors

RA World: Get your boys excited about missions with the official RA member magazine! Written for pre-readers to preteens, each issue is packed with:

- missionary and missionary kid profiles
- articles about cities and countries where missionaries serve
- games and activities
- vibrant, full-color pages
- content that corresponds with weekly sessions in RA Leader

Four quarterly issues a year—one per boy

RA Leader: This is the essential resource for leading RA. In each issue, you can expect to receive:

- four weekly sessions that correspond with RA World
- creative activities
- ministry ideas
- leadership articles and advice on teaching pre-readers to preteens

Four quarterly issues a year—one per leader

RA Leader Kit: RA Leader Kit is the perfect supplement to energize every Royal Ambassador session! It includes games, posters and glossy, full-color pictures that correspond with the lessons in RA Leader and bring each missions focus to life.

Four quarterly issues a year—one per classroom

To order your Royal Ambassadors materials, visit wmu.com/ra or call 1-800-968-7301.

To set up a free Royal Ambassadors consultation, contact Zachariah Seanor, Children's Ministry Consultant, at zseanor@wmu.org or (205) 991-4057.